

Keep your Jewels High, Dry, and Safe!

When Ace Johnson travels, he travels light.

You should as well...

It doesn't matter if it's three days, three weeks, or three months, Ace just carries one bag.

...and that's all you should carry as well, and you can, if you start here, with good underwear.

According to Ace your underwear must have these three features when traveling light:

The Sweet Ace Trunks can double as impromptu "Ranger Panties" or swim trunks.

Guyana, or perhaps you are stuck living out of your car and hotels for a bit; the ability to quickly hand wash your clothes in the sink, and have them easily hang dry becomes very important. The blend of silky, smooth, polyester and spandex, ensures your Sweet Ace Trunks will quickly hang dry, even in the most humid climates.

Quick dry also means these “Travel Trunks” get less funky.
